

Owners and Operator of In The Company Of Horses:

Lloyd Gillespie & Isabel Wolf-Gillespie

Lloyd Gillespie

FGASA Lead Horse Guide Dangerous Game and Trails Guide

CEEPSA Professional Equestrian Coach International

EQASA Certificate of Horsemastership & Equestrian Tourism International

Lloyd Gillespie is a FGASA qualified Big 5 Field Guide/Trails Guide with more than 20 years of experience in the industry in Southern Africa. He has owned and operated Fishriver Horse Safaris, the Haven Horse Safaris and now In the Company of Horses. Lloyd specializes on teaching guiding from horseback and conducts practical natural horsemanship workshops focusing on relationships between horse and humans based on leadership and trust. In the Company of Horses enrolls interns and apprentices on selected occasions throughout the year.

Lloyd is a member of the International Equestrian Qualification Authority of Southern Africa and certified as International Horse master & Equestrian Tourism Instructor. He is also a member of the Council of Equine and Equestrian Professionals of South Africa, certified as International Professional Equestrian Coach.

Isabel Wolf-Gillespie

Wilderness & Equine Facilitated Personal Development Practitioner

CEEPSA Qualified Equine Complementary Health Therapist

Equine Corporate Leadership Consultant

Earth Awareness Consulting Environmental Educator (www.earthawareness.co.za)

Isabel has been schooled in classical dressage and show jumping in Germany, where she grew up. From 2008 she has been assisting Lloyd with the operations and management of In the Company of Horses. She is also a qualified nurse.